

Register of Old Settles – Adair County, Mo. – 1889 – Adair County Historical society

These names of persons attending an Old Settlers Reunion in 1889 in Adair County were listed in the back of a notebook given to the Adair County Historical Society by Ottie Greiner of Kirksville. It had been given to her by Dola Caldwell.

According to Violette's History of Adair County in 1911, there had been, up to 1910, three Old Settlers' Reunions. The first, when we believe this list was made, was at the Fairgrounds in Kirksville on October 4, 1889. Reverend W. L. Fletcher, one of Adair County's oldest settlers, called the meeting to order, according to Violette, and Judge Wesley Halliburton, of Milan, gave the opening address. Reminiscences were related by Dr. William Gates, Reverend William Jones, Fletcher, Washington Conner, and Elder Russell. Garland Moore, 108 years old, attended the reunion with R. M. Ringo.

Three hundred and two persons signed the register, gave their date of birth, place of birth and the date they settled in Adair County.

In the back part of the old notebook is another list of over 400 names. It is not known why it is separate from the list occupying the front pages. It apparently gives the age of the persons signing, and they state where they were born. These additional names start on page 12.

Please note all names are grouped alphabetically. They are not in strict alphabetical order.
