Mr. Hall, who is the President and largest stock-holder in our store, wrote us on the 18th inst. to make a reduction in the price of every article in our store from 10 to 50 per cent.

He says we much not carry over any stock; and owing to the bad weather, the millinery business has not been good in this section.

You will see that we have complied with his instructions with a vengeance.

Our loss is your gain!

50 doz. flowers, cut from 25c. to 13c.
